

TESTIMONIALS

The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation has helped countless people with disabilities find meaningful employment and a path to personal independence. Read these success stories of Coloradans.

“

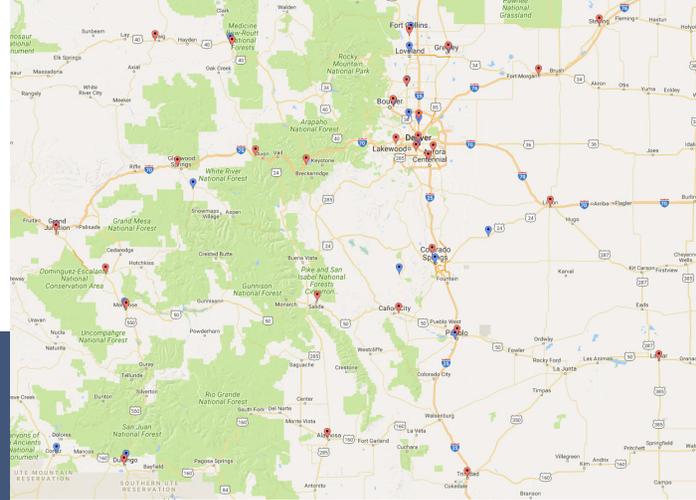

“DVR is a wonderful tool to be utilized for the attainment of gainful employment,” said Durango client Kashmir Johnson who through DVR services was hired at Mercy Medical Center. “Mercy Family Medicine saw a woman with real potential, determination, and someone who has overcome a lot and does not give up. With the few accommodations needed, Mercy Family Medicine set me up to be successful at my job and in turn gained a valuable employee.”

“

“Helping change a life takes a simple act - a decision to give a skilled worker a chance to succeed in our company has been a positive experience,” said Denise Swanson, Executive Director of Volunteers of America is Homestead at Montrose and DVR employer partner. “On-the-job Training provided us the opportunity to see the value and productivity of our employee at a low training cost to our bottom line. It provides an individual with the opportunity to become self-sufficient and a productive member in our community.”
