

Resources for Employers

Did you know that 85% of adults with I/DD are unemployed/underemployed due to barriers to Competitive Integrated Employment? Tap into this talent pool for your business or organization. Here are tools to get you started:

Benefits

Heightened
Morale

Increase
Talent Pool

Tax
Credits

Demonstrate
Inclusive
Practices

Source: Colorado Office of Employment First

EVALUATING OR EXPANDING YOUR BUSINESS' DISABILITY SAVVY:

Job Accommodation Network

Offers free expert and confidential guidance on workplace accommodations and disability employment issues. Learn more >

NOD Tracker

Find out where your company stands with the Employment Tracker™. Complete the free and confidential assessment and receive a scorecard benchmarking your company's performance in disability and veterans inclusion. Learn more >

EARN Employer Assistance and Resource Network on Disability Inclusion

A free resource that will help you tap into the benefits of disability diversity by educating you on ways to build inclusive workplace cultures. Learn more >

CTAT Coaching, Training & Transformation - Community Counts!

Offering program consultation for organizations, businesses, and clubs in the Denver Metro area. Learn more >

HIRING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES:

Colorado Office of Employment First - for Employers

A wealth of resources exist to bring disability training topics to your workplace, to understand your labor needs, and to match those needs with unique skills and talents of career seekers. Learn more >

Division of Vocational Rehabilitation - Business Relations Unit

Ready to assist your business or organization with a variety of individualized service offerings to meet the specific, unique needs and goals of your business or organization. They can help with recruiting qualified applicants for employment, training, posting a job, tax credits, and more. They also have a large untapped talent pool of job seekers with a variety of backgrounds and skills who are motivated to work. Learn more >

Internal Tax Revenue Tax Credits

Your business may qualify for tax credits and deductions by accommodating people with disabilities. Learn more >